

Kitchen Positions

Junior Sous Chef

You will be responsible for the daily preparation and delivery of breakfast, lunch and dinner in The Old Barn Restaurant.

You will have the opportunity to learn and develop your culinary skill set in a fun and creative environment. A good work ethic is essential for this role.

This role may suit a Chef de Partie looking to step up or a Junior Sous Chef looking for a new challenge.

Duties & responsibilities include:

- Cooking food to company standards
- Maintaining a high standard of cleanliness
- Organising and preparing sections
- Following food safety standards
- Be flexible and helping other areas of company when required
- Communicate with Head Chef and Food & Beverage Manager
- The ability to manage kitchen in absence of Head Chef
- Excellent knowledge of HACCP
- Ensure full knowledge of menu and allergens

Permanent position, annualised hours, includes weekends and shift work over 7 days.

Commis Chef

Duties & responsibilities include:

- Cooking food to company standards
- Maintaining a high standard of cleanliness
- Organising and preparing sections
- Following food safety standards
- Be flexible and helping other areas of company when required
- Communicate with Head Chef and Sous Chef
- Ensure full knowledge of menu and allergens

Seasonal position, includes weekends and shift work over 7 days.

Kitchen Porter

Duties & responsibilities include:

- Cleaning & sterilising countertops, kitchen walls, stoves, ovens ,grills and sinks
- Maintaining the food storage areas like freezers and refrigerators
- Receiving deliveries and organising them in the kitchen and back of house areas
- Washing dirty dishes like cutlery, pots, chopping boards and pans
- Removing kitchen waste from containers and disposing of them properly
- Cleaning and maintain cooking equipment like cookers, pots and food mixers
- Supporting the chef in basic food preparation

Seasonal position, includes weekends and shift work over 7 days.

To apply for a Kitchen position, contact Diane Page - HR Manager - dpage@dumbarnielinks.com